RE: Requesting Design Permission

Dear [Designer/Publisher Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to request your permission to enter a quilt in an upcoming AQS QuiltWeek Quilt Contest. The quilt, titled [QUILT TITLE], was created using a pattern/design sourced from your [pattern/book/website/etc].

Design/Pattern Name: [Name of Pattern, Photograph, Artwork]

Author: [Author/Designer/Artist's Name]

Publisher: [Publisher Name]

Year: [Year]

I would be honored to showcase this quilt in the AQS QuiltWeek Quilt Contests or Challenges and potentially have it featured in contest publications. I assure you that proper credit will be given to you as the original designer of the pattern/design.

You will be cited as the source. Here is a sample of a Design Source: Crazy Tula, New York Beauties & Flying Geese: 10 Dramatic Quilts, 27 Pillows, 31 Block Patterns by Carl Hentsch, C&T Publishing, 2017.

If this quilt is accepted into any AQS exhibit, the quilt with design source, could be used in articles, ads, promotions, catalogues, books, magazines, websites (including webcast coverage), blogs, CDs, current event news coverage, television productions, and/or multimedia productions for and/or about the AQS event.

Will you please grant me permission to enter my quilt by signing the attached Design Permission Letter or sending me a statement of permissions by email? Thank you for considering my request. I appreciate the opportunity to showcase this quilt and share it with thousands of quilters to inspire quilting and carry-on this longtime tradition. If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me. My contact information is below.

Sincerely,
