

American Quilter's Society Announces 2020 QuiltWeek Dates

Paducah, KY., October 22, 2019 – American Quilter's Society (AQS), the largest quilting membership organization in the world, is pleased to announce the 2020 AQS QuiltWeek Show dates. AQS QuiltWeek 2020 includes six events across the country, kicking off with a four-day event in Daytona Beach and concluding with a three-day event in Charleston.

“QuiltWeek is a prime example of how people from all over come together to admire artwork that is not only nostalgic but has evolved to incorporate revolutionary and modern art techniques” says Bonnie Browning AQS Executive Show Director. “These events make an indelible mark on the fiber art community by showcasing the best talent and offering the largest cash prizes for quilters in the country.”

Each show features a variety of programming, including special exhibitions, workshops by renowned instructors, contests and a Merchant Mall with the latest machines, fabrics and tools for quilters of every skill level.

About the American Quilter's Society:

In 1984, after recognizing the enthusiasm for quilting across the country, Meredith and Bill Schroeder formed the American Quilter's Society (AQS). Their goal was to develop a group that gave national recognition to quilters and their work and to set the standard for excellence in the quilting industry. Today, AQS is the largest quilting membership organization in the world, with over 70,000 members worldwide. 2019 marks the 35th anniversary of the AQS QuiltWeek Show which began in Paducah, KY, known as Quilt City USA® and has since expanded to six shows annually. AQS QuiltWeek 2019 includes six events in cities across the country and kicks off with a four-day event in Daytona Beach. Each show includes a variety of programming, including special exhibitions, workshops by renowned instructors, contests and a Merchant Mall with the latest machines, fabrics and tools for quilters of every skill level.
