#18513 - Quilting/Finishing-LONGARM

Thread Painting by Color is a class sample, a fun and colorful way to unlock free-motion quilting skills without the formality of any particular design. During this three hour thread painting class, you will use five different thread colors and a 6" embroidery hoop to paint an exclusive mandala panel, simulating pencil strokes, and playing with textures, density, light, and shadow. No matter how much experience you have with free-motion quilting, the result will surprise you! Two people per machine.
