

March 22–25, 2023

Tumbling Hexagons Using Y-Seams

Nancy McNally

Beginner/Intermediate

Friday, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Short Creek 3

#27515 - Piecing

Proudly Sponsored By

JANOME
Reliability by Design

In class, you will use scrap fabric strips to create unique and fun hexagons, each made up of three diamonds. This is a technique to add to your quilting arsenal: Y-seams. Nancy makes Y-seams easy! Bring your scrap fabric strips to class and let's create some Tumbling Hexagons!

nancymcnallyquilts.com

Member: $56

Retail: $70

(Plus Materials Fee)

Supplies:

Please bring the following items to class:

- Basic Sewing Supplies
- 1/2 yd. light fabric
- 1 yd. assortment of medium to light fabrics
- (1) Creative Grid CGRT12560 (12 1/2") 60° Triangle template OR CGR60DIA designed by Krista Moser
- Strip cutting ruler with 60° registration line (6 1/2" x 24 1/2" OR 18 1/2" x 24 1/2")
- Favorite spray starch
- Fabric marking pen

Machines by Janome • Thread by WonderFil® • Irons by Panasonic • Rotary cutters, mats, and 6" x 24" rulers by AccuQuilt®