#449122t - Creative Crafts/Arts

Join Linda in her cozy workshop, where creativity blooms like coneflowers in spring. In this delightful workshop, you'll learn to breathe life into fabric, crafting a small garden of coneflowers. And what's a garden without a bee? A happy little pollinator will flit alongside your blossoms. Discover layering techniques, shading mastery, and the art of botanical storytelling—all on fabric. Whether you're a seasoned artist or a curious beginner, Linda ensures your petals and bee come alive.
