Perfection starts here.™

Quilting a bed-sized quilt on a home sewing machine is a challenge - but not with Ann's special technique for joining blocks or strips to make a completely finished quilt on your home machine. Learn the Block-at-a-Time quilting technique (as opposed to learning a specific piecing technique or block pattern) while making a table runner that can be finished in class. In this workshop, you will learn all the steps needed to complete an entire quilt on your home machine. Add this important skill to your quilting toolbox for when you want to finish the entire quilt and bypass the expense of longarming. You will also learn to adapt patterns to use this technique.
